

Lusse Lelle

Jim Beam Rye, saffron sugar, mandarin & rich cream

Like a creamy saffron bun with a hint of mandarin and American spirit, we call this Christmas spirit in a glass. The tradition of pairing spirits and sweets at Christmas exists in many countries: the English have their Christmas pudding, the Italians their Panettone, the Germans their Stolle.

We have the saffron bun, which really should have spirits in it too—makes perfect sense, doesn't it? 145 sek

Snowball

Freyja's Egg Liqueur, sweet lime & classic fruit soda from Hammars Bryggeri

The Snowball, the undisputed king of cocktails in the North, Silja Line's best-selling drink, the Piña Colada of the Åland Sea. Take a little holiday and order a Snowball, then let your mind drift to Mariehamn, gazing out over frost and snowstorms. By the way, isn't Santa Finnish...? 125 sek

Rudolf the Red-Nosed Reindeer

"Britta from Boge" – an aquavit infused with bitter orange, citrus & saffron, toffee, apple juice & fresh cranberries, served warm.

A hard cider, mulled wine, or spiked glögg—but our way. We use Britta from Boge Bränneri for this warm holiday hug of a cocktail, with the flavors of fresh apples and cranberries. Gotlandic snaps and Scanian apples bring the Swedish touch and then we threw in a bit of Canada with the cranberries. The result? Unbelievably Christmassy and delicious. 165 sek

Cracker

Rice-washed vodka from Stockholms Bränneri,
Apple brandy- & Punsch from Roslagen, cinnamon stick & sweet almond milk

*Fluffy and velvety smooth. We just had to create a cocktail inspired by rice pudding—this is the most fun you'll ever have drinking porridge!
Our Stökvatten vodka (55%) brings the heat, and we add Christmas flavors to make it irresistibly tasty. 155 sek*
